WORKSHEET

CLASS - IV

SUBJECT – ENGLISH

I. Read the following passage and answer the following questions.

A little girl, Phani, had a doll with long black hair and big black eyes. She loved it so much that she would treat it with great care. She would comb its hair and change its dress every day. She had a box full of dresses, stitched by her mother for her doll.

As time passed, the little girl grew up, moved houses, became an adult, married, had children, and finally became a loving old woman, Phani Amma.

One day, she returned to her hometown and went to her old house. Among hundreds of old things, she found her doll. It will look as good as it always had. She took the doll with her and gave it to her granddaughter, who loved it.

Every time Phani Amma saw her granddaughter playing with the doll, tears of joy would roll down her cheeks. She was glad that she had looked after the doll so well.

Now, she could enjoy it as much as she had when she was a girl, seeing it in the hands of her granddaughter.
